

ADVOCATING For Your Child With Special Needs

Would you like to learn how to advocate more effectively for your child with special needs?

Louise McGoey, former chair of the Ottawa Catholic Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC), will provide participants with strategies for effective advocacy.

Learn about the importance of knowing what your goals are for your child, how to communicate effectively with school and board staff and how to prepare for productive meetings.

Register: <http://bit.ly/CSPAadvocacy>

Wednesday, April 6, 2016

7:00–8:30 PM

St. Patrick's High School

2525 Alta Vista Drive

