A Parent's Guide to Special Education

The OCSB Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC) and the OCSB Special Education and Student Services Department invites you to an information evening to learn more about special education programs and services offered at the Ottawa Catholic School Board.

Come learn about programs, services, roles, responsibilities, resources and how you as a parent, can work with the school to help and support your child.

Meet key OCSB staff and members of SEAC, a group of parents representing various associations, who advocate on behalf of all children with special needs.

Where: Boardroom,
OCSB Catholic Education Centre
570 West Hunt Club Road

Can't Attend?
Join us online!

This event will also be available on the internet that evening as a "webinar".

You can access the presentation, listen to the discussion and ask questions via computer.

We will email the webinar link to all those who register and share the link via Twitter.
