Resource Exams will be written in Rooms 100, 130, 132 and 216

Textbooks are to be returned to your teacher before the exam begins. Do not bring jackets, purses, bags or electronic devices to the exam room. Only books requested by the teacher, calculators and stationary are permitted in the room. Once you have completed your exam, you are expected to leave the school.

Exams will be written in the classroom indicated on the exam schedule. Your teacher will inform you of an alternate location if applicable. Students must remain in the examination room for a minimum of 1 hr.

Snow Days and the Exam Schedule:

In the case of a weather event, it is in the student's best interest to take home all exam materials on the last day of classes. High School exams will be written on January 25th, 26th, 29th, and 30th. In the event of a snow day during the high school exam period, exam schedules at all schools for all students will be affected (not just for school bus riders).

In the event of a "snow day" where yellow school bus transportation is cancelled during the high school exam period, the missed exam will be written the following day.

All other exams will be bumped by one day and the last exam, scheduled for Tuesday, January 30th will be written on Thursday, February 1st. During a snow day, the school will be open, but exams will not be written.

Wednesday, January 31st remains a PD day whether or not there is a snow day during exam week.

For example, if January 26th is a snow day and all school bus transportation for our board is cancelled, then:
 All exams originally scheduled for January 26th will be written on January 29th.
 All exams originally scheduled for January 29th will be written on January 30th.
 All exams originally scheduled for January 30th will be written on February 1st.
 January 31st remains a PD Day.

iPads on loan to students who are leaving after Semester 1 are to be returned to the Learning Commons following your final exam. Also, the Learning Commons is open for silent, individual study only during exams for our high school students.
